

INFORMATION RELEASE FORM

First Advantage ("First Advantage", "we", "us" or "our") are background screening service providers. We have been engaged by your prospective employer, or contractor of your services (the "Requestor") to conduct background checks and to verify the information you have provided or may provide for employment/engagement with the Requestor.

We will send you an email with unique login details for completing the online background and reference questionnaire within three working days from the receipt of this form. The online background and reference questionnaire must be fully completed by you within three working days from receipt of the email from First Advantage Corporation.

Please note that you will be asked in the questionnaire to provide a date for us to confirm your current employer reference. You must specify the earliest possible date this can be done because any delays to the background and reference check as a result of this date may cause a delay to the completion of the check and impact your ability to commence employment including, if applicable, regulated activities. Please contact your HR Department if this date changes after completion of the questionnaire.

The purposes of this form are to explicitly inform you and to obtain your consent for First Advantage Corporation Limited and its subsidiaries ("FADV") and/or its agents to collect personal information about you (the "Information") to conduct searches and verification on your background information, which may include employment references, civil and criminal records, local language media information, directorship information, directorship disqualification information, property ownership information, credit records, driver's license offence records, driver's license verification, education and credential verification, and other background information on you as requested by the Requestor (the "Collected Information"). You hereby authorize FADV and/or its agents, to contact you as well as various government agencies, any and all corporations, former employers, educational institutions, consumer credit information agencies, law enforcement agencies and courts and other contributors (the "Contributors") as a relevant party acting on your behalf for the purposes of obtaining the Collected Information. This form releases the Contributors from any liability and responsibility for releasing the Collected Information to the Requestor or FADV. FADV and/or its agents may release the Information and this consent form to the Contributors and such other persons as may be necessary for the purposes of performing such searches and verification. FADV will furnish to the Requestor a report containing the Collected Information (the "Report"). The Report shall be the property of the Requestor.

In signing this form, you confirm that your consent is given voluntarily and shall remain valid and effective until and unless it is withdrawn by you with prior written notice. You are advised to obtain independent legal advice on your rights under relevant personal data / privacy legislation and the legal effect of this form before signing of this form. FADV (and its agents) is collecting, holding, processing and using the Information, the Collected Information and such other related information and documents that may contain your personal data solely on behalf of the Requestor and does not hold, process or use those information for any of its own purposes.
